

INDUCED ABORTION IS ALWAYS A VERY GRIEVOUS OFFENCE, ABOMINABLE IN GOD'S EYES!

We, Peter III, Sovereign Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Servant of the servants of God, Patriarch of Palmar de Troya, de Glória Ecclesiæ, Herald of the Lord God of Hosts, Good Shepherd of souls, Aflame with the Zeal of Elias and Defender of the Rights of God and of the Church. We teach:

Abortion magnifies the savagery of Herod, who ordered the killing of the Holy Innocents in the times of Christ, thinking that the Child Jesus, King of kings, would be among them. In the world today the practice of abortion continues to mow down the lives of millions of innocent children, an abominable crime. Though governments allow it, God the Creator, the maximum authority, will never allow anything so cruel, so savage, as for a person to kill their own child!

The great majority of human beings are unaware, or seek to be unaware, that every human being conceived is at once a human person from the very moment of conception, since at that same moment of conception of a human being, God infuses the spiritual and immortal soul, and hence from that moment on, the child is a human person with the right to life. Consequently, from that moment of conception in the maternal womb, the child possesses the same rights as a child once born. On speaking here of abortion, we refer solely to criminal abortion, namely wilfully induced. Criminal abortion is the interruption, wilfully induced, of the development in the maternal womb of a human being conceived, living, with the direct or indirect intention of depriving the child of life. This crime is considered abortion whether it is an embryo, foetus or immature human being, for whom it is impossible to live outside the mother's womb, or whether it is a human being already mature whose delivery from the maternal womb is accelerated with the intention of killing him. Abortion can be induced: sometimes by the pregnant woman herself by way of excessive physical exercises, or abortive medicines; or by others using manipulations; and as well by medical intervention in an operating theatre. Wilfully induced abortion is always a most grievous mortal sin, in whatever way it is carried out, since it is true murder, with the aggravating circumstance that the victim is defenceless. Hence there is no reason at all that can justify it in any case; for to produce an innocent human person's death directly is always a horrendous crime, whatever the circumstances may be. And all those who have intervened, though simply by counselling it, are also guilty of committing the same murder.

Today no one speaks of the remedy for avoiding these terrible and abominable abortions. The remedy is called holy chastity, holy purity. If human beings were to live chastely there would not even be that false excuse for killing unwanted beings conceived. But that is not so, the world preaches immorality, fornication, indecency, impurity, false pleasure, as something normal and necessary for a person living an ordinary life.

Let us begin with the causes of future provoked abortions of unwanted beings once conceived. We shall give a list of the dangers in the course of life that can be the cause of those dreadful and abominable induced abortions.

Children receive a satanic sexual education at school, but not to help them to become pure and chaste. Quite the contrary, the diabolic teaching they receive is to degrade them, to destroy children's innocence.

Television, internet and communications media are number one enemies for a Christian household, as they give access to immorality and pornography very easily.

Today's fashions are a homage to the flesh. They provoke lust.

Filthy reading, immoral spectacles, indecent dancing, beaches and swimming pools, modern music, all serve just to foment fornication.

Discotheques, so called, are hellish places where there is always a proximate occasion of sin, given the scandalous dancing, the diabolic setup, the infernal music, provocative dress, ghastly screams, gestures, drinks, and so on... The discotheque then, is a den of hell owing to its brazen perversity. "Everywhere, in every city in the world they cry out against God, they blaspheme; in pubs, in bars, horrifying blasphemies against God and everything sacred. And let us penetrate in thought into those nightclubs where they sing and dance satanically, offending God directly, twisting about with words offensive to God, living with their backs to God and uttering words which rise up from the infernal abyss against the Creator."

Modern music, that is, rock and all its derivatives, etc., are produced by Satan himself. By means of that music all the lower passions of man are given free reign; and besides this, it brings on hysteria, fanaticism, drug addiction, excessive drinking and many other psychical and physical disorders. Modern music is that most opposed to true musical art and is an infernal incentive to sensuality. The lyrics of this kind of music are usually a shameless call to a life of vice and sin.

Beaches and swimming pools, etc., are places of scandal and proximate occasions of sin, so that one cannot go to them when there is immorality.

Certainly, the press is falsified, expressed and propagated by international freemasonry; and where it has most infiltrated is the printed press: newspapers, weeklies, magazines, documentaries and so forth. However, freemasonry has infiltrated the radio as well.

Provocative fashions: "At the present time, the perversity of provocative feminine fashion has reached degrees of depravity as never before; above all as the outrageous fashions of today are highlighting masculinity rather than femininity in the woman. Women have reached such utter degradation that feminine wear is what least attracts them; so that they care very little about beauty in their personal appearance. Present day women's fashions are a shameless exaltation of sensuality and at the same time a degradation of femininity. The majority of modern women have become spectres of indecency, ugliness, vulgarity and masculinity. The fashions of today, then, are one of the greatest scandals and therefore one of the greatest means of degrading the population.

Transvestite women, that is, those who wear men's clothing, are a shameful aberration, overturning God's natural plan regarding the female sex. That said of women also applies to men in what corresponds to them, since present day men's fashions as well are an assault on Christian Decency, by their extravagance, provocation, effeminacy, undress, and so forth.

How many men are seen with earrings, women's hairstyles and other things typically women's. We say nothing of transvestite men, namely those who dress as women, a brazen aberration, which overturns God's natural plan regarding the male sex.

Take care not to look at things you should not. The eyes are the windows of the soul.

Be careful with hearing without discernment. Do not listen to things you should not.

Be careful with immoral thoughts.

Be careful about what you touch, do not let yourself be touched.

Beware of immoral dress. With your immoral dress you sin and lead others into sin.

Take care to live with modesty and maintain decency.

Be careful with photographs, videos and films in the social networks.

Be careful with the social networks in general.

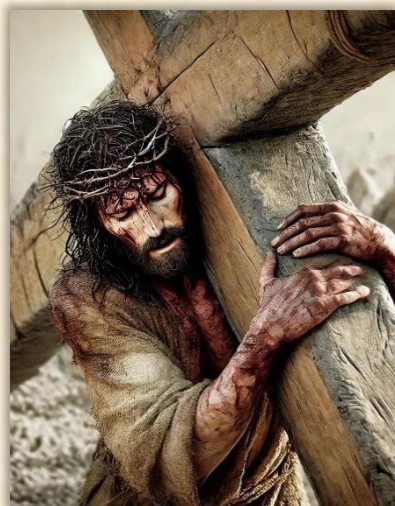

Be careful not to go into discotheques and nightclubs, places for losing your soul.

Be careful to avoid false and dangerous friends.

Be careful with going out courting and with the places you go to.

Be careful with your boyfriend and don't let him do with you as he pleases.

Beware of drugs and alcoholic drinks, they serve to destroy the body.

Do not forget, God sees everything, hears everything, knows everything, down to the most hidden thoughts!

Abominable and terrible abortions are generally unwanted beings conceived as the fruit of sin!

Seek spiritual remedies so as not to be led astray by the world, the devil and the flesh, and thus not fall into the horrible temptation of committing induced abortions:

Hear Holy Masses validly celebrated, solely in the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic and Palmarian Church. Pray the Holy Penitential Rosary and other prayers. Spiritual reading. Receive Sacraments that are valid, only in the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic and Palmarian Church. Avoid sinful and dangerous places. Avoid bad companions and worldly parties. Struggle against the world, the devil and the flesh. Dress decently. Thoroughly clean out your home and remove everything that goes against holy chastity.

Live in the holy fear of God and from your heart honour Mary Most Holy, refuge of sinners.

We recount a real episode in the life of the holy Capuchin, Saint Pio of Pietrelcina:

Known for his stigmata, his fervour and his miracles, Saint Pio of Pietrelcina converted countless souls by the example of his holiness. But above all, the Italian Saint was a consummate Confessor, a Champion of Catholic Teaching. In the face of sin he had no qualms about using words today considered truly harsh by some people. His principal objective was the salvation of souls and to show the gravity of offences against God. The prince of darkness reigns in the soul that speaks of abortion as something not wrong. On commenting on the sin of abortion, Saint Pio once spoke thus: “If you knew how terrible this sin is, what you call abortion... If you could only feel the pain of Christ’s wounds, who shed His Precious Blood for the salvation of man. When you see a soul speaking of abortion as an act that is not wrong, you know that the prince of darkness reigns in that soul, and his eternity is for now in the book of death.”

“Accursed! Wretches! Alas for those unhappy souls who dare to tempt divine wrath! The eternal fury of the One who created them will fall upon them. Alas for us!, my brethren, if we consent to this miserable and mortal sin. Let us not dare to take the place of the Creator, nor allow anyone else to do so. Let us not become accomplices to this accursed crime by our silence and our unconcern.” “The day when people lose their horror of abortion will be a terrible day for mankind. Abortion is not only murder, but suicide as well. And for those who are at the point of committing the one and the other offence, we should have the courage to show our Faith!” “You would understand this to be a suicide of the human race if, with the eye of reason, you were to see the earth peopled by the elderly and empty of children, burnt up like a desert. If you were to reflect in this way, you would understand the double gravity of abortion, as it implies as well the mutilation of the parents’ lives.” “On these parents I will cast the ashes of their destroyed foetuses, to show them their responsibilities and deny them the possibility of appealing to their own ignorance. An induced abortion cannot be given false consideration and false piety. That would be abominable hypocrisy. These ashes should be hurled into the faces of such murderous parents. If I did not make them feel guilty, I would feel involved in their crimes.” “Look, I am not a saint and I have never felt close to holiness either. When I say words that are perhaps rather strong, but right and necessary for those who commit this crime, I am sure that I have obtained God's approval for my rigour." "My rigour in defence of bringing children into this world is always an act of faith and hope." In this way the saintly Italian succeeded in leading the sinner to true and sincere repentance and amendment of life, besides making him fully conscious of the gravity of the sins committed.

Also in this matter, a little-known episode once occurred when he saw a lady who approached his confessional and Padre Pio asked her to close her eyes and say what she saw. Complying with his request, the lady closed her eyes and said: "I see an enormous plaza with many people. Among them, I see a solemn procession moving. I see many Priests, Bishops and Cardinals in the Court: All precede a Pope who is taking his throne. Yes, it is precisely a Pope I see on the throne and a great multitude acclaiming this Pope. But what does this all mean?" The saintly Priest then explained: "The child you killed in your womb by abortion, in God's designs, was to have become that Pope." On hearing these words, the poor woman screamed and fainted beside the confessional.

We know that We shall be criticized by abortionists, but God is over and above everything, the truth is over and above everything. The fifth Commandment of God's Law is quite clear: Do not kill.
